MINISTERS WILL MEET

Wellsville to Entertain the Steubenville Presbytery.

PROGRAM FOR THE TWO DAYS

The Sessions Open Monday Evening, and Will Continue Through Tuesday—Much Business to Be Transacted by the Preachers.

The Steubenville presbytery of the Presbyterian church will meet in Wellsville next Monday evening, and continue in session until Tuesday evening.

The sessions will open Monday evening at 7 o'clock in the Second church, and after the roll call the officers will be elected. The report of the committee of arrangements will be followed by a sermon by Rev. J. P. Leyenberger. Communion and the appointment of committees will end the meeting. Devotional exercises will open the Tuesday morning meeting at 8:30 o'clock, and the reports of committees will occupy the attention of presbytery for three hours. Unfinished business will be taken up at 1 o'clock, and the mission hour begins half an hour later. At 2:30 the program calls for "Conference—How Prevalent For Souls," Rev. A. D. McCollough speaking on "Helps" and Rev. T. J. Gray on "Hindrances." "Vacant Churches and Unemployed Ministers" will be discussed, the first address being made by Rev. J. C. Kreusch. The report of the committee on supplies and the place for holding the next meeting will be the business for 6:30, and the gospel meeting will be held at 7 o'clock. "The Claims of Christ Upon the Soul" is the subject of Rev. W. M. Hays; "What Christ Can Do For Man," Rev. W. B. Irwin; "The Blessings of Unconditional Surrender," Rev. W. F. Weir; "The Folly of Indecision," Rev. W. M. Eaton. After the approval of the minutes presbytery will adjourn.

barrel of salt. While on his way to his farm in the country he encountered a rain storm, and the barrel of salt was soaked with water. When he reached home he opened the barrel, and thinking the salt was spoiled started for town and the grocery store. He wanted his money back, and seemed surprised when the grocer told him salt did not open spoil.

FOR NEXT YEAR.

The Eclipse football team had a large representation at the meeting last evening. W. L. Taylor was made chairman. The financial statement of Manager Stevenson showed a debt, and A. W. Stevenson, W. L. Taylor and J. W. Harris were made a committee whose duty it is to devise some means of paying the obligations of the club in full. The election of officers made A. W. Stevenson manager, Homer J. Taylor captain, S. T. Herbert treasurer. The club is preparing to enter the next season with a strong team.

LOCATED THE FURNITURE.

The Nonpareil Club Expect to Have It Returned.

After a diligent search, the Nonpareil club succeeded in finding their furniture in a second-hand store, where it had been sold by three members of the organization for $3. The dealer was acquainted with the facts, and notified not to sell the furniture. The members were informed that they must redeem the property, and if it is not returned to the club within 10 days they must suffer the penalty. The club at first observed the matter as a joke, but they now say it has passed beyond that point.

TO THE YOUNG WOMAN'S HOME

Take What Gifts You Have For the Poor Children.

The ladies who have charge of the treat to be given the poor children of the city are meeting with splendid success in collecting toys and clothing for their charges. They still need more, and all charitable persons who would contribute to the cause are urged to send their contributions before Christmas to the Young Woman's home, Market street. There will be many mouths to feed and many hearts to make glad, and you should do what you can to help the good cause along.

SAY THEY SAW A GHOST.

Second Street People Think a Dead Resident Has Returned.

Second street people were talking today because it was reported that the shade of a recently departed one is said to have been seen in that part of the city last night. He looked as natural as life, the story goes, and wandered around his accustomed haunts as though he had lost his best friend. Not one of the people who saw the ghost could be found, but several acknowledged hearing the story. One party suggested that it probably originated in someone's half emptied bottle.

CHANGED THE METHOD.

Ministers Will Not Get Transportation In the Old Way.

All the ticket agents of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburgh have been notified that the method of issuing transportation to ministers has been changed. Agents will not issue clergymen's permits as heretofore, but will give the applicants blanks. These are to be filled out, and sent to an official of the Central Traffic association. Each application must be accompanied by 50 cents, and the permit will be issued. The rule applies to all annual permits of ministers.

TOO MANY HUNTERS.

More Sportsmen Than Game In West Virginia

A well known and prominent sportsman who recently took a hunting trip into West Virginia when asked this morning if game was plentiful replied that there were more hunters at present in West Virginia than there was game. He said Hancock county was overrun with sportsmen, who hardly ever secured enough game to pay them for their trouble, and the only wonder to him was that the farmers would permit so many people on their farms.

TANGLED HORSES.

It Was Hard to Tell Which Owned the Legs.

A horse belonging to C. E. Swan this morning broke from the curb where it was hitched in the Diamond, and backed into the outfit of George Gaston, standing nearby. The horses began kicking, and the Gaston horse had its foot caught in a wheel of Swan's wagon, and there was instantly a tangle seldom seen. It required the combined efforts of several persons to extricate the horses. The Gaston horse sustained a cut on the leg.

STRUCK DOWN BY A CAR

Little Annie Konig Was Very Near to Death.

HER LEG BROKEN IN TWO PLACES

She Was Playing Near the Power House With a Companion and Ran on the Track Before Motorman Stodgill Could Stop—She Will Recover.

Annie, the six year old daughter of Henry Konig, a dish maker employed at the Laughlin pottery, lies at the home near Ralston crossing, with one leg broken in two places, the result of an accident on the street railway late yesterday afternoon.

The little one, with a companion, was playing near the saw mill, and Annie started to run across the track. At that moment a car in charge of Motorman Stodgill came in sight. It was not going at a high rate of speed, but the motorman did not see the child until it was too late. She ran directly in front of the car, and before he knew what was happening, had been struck down. The motorman stopped at once, and found Annie with one leg lying across the rail. Taking her in his arms he carried her tenderly toward her home, but had not gone far when he met her sister who took her home. The motorman then hastened to East End and returned in a short time with Doctor Davis.

He found the child's left leg was broken in two places, the most serious fracture being near the hip. The muscles were torn and lacerated, but the foot was uninjured. The injuries were dressed, and the little one is today getting along as well as could be expected. She will recover.

No blame can be attached to Motorman Stodgill. The car was not running at a high rate of speed, and he stopped it the moment he knew the child had been hit.

HEAR REV. O. S. REED.

"How the Other Fellow and I Put Down the Rebellion."

Gentle readers, don't you fail to hear this talented gentleman and eloquent orator. He has acquired a splendid reputation as a platform speaker, and the coming lecture, to be given Tuesday night, December 15th, at the United Presbyterian church, is replete with happy hits and pleasing passages. Every old soldier, accompanied by his family and relatives, should be on hand. The price of admission has been placed at the low figure of 25 cents. This lecture is given under the auspices of the ministerial association, and the proceeds are to go to the Good Citizens league, a worthy cause, under the supervision of men tried and true, who are working in the advocacy of truth, right and good citizenship. Speaking of Reverend Reed, our townsman, the Louisville Commercial says:

"Rev. O. S. Reed, of Noblesville, Ind., chaplain of the Indiana Department, G. A. R., was introduced. His oration, which lasted an hour, was one of the finest memorial addresses ever delivered in the cemetery, and he held the closest attention of his auditors throughout. As he spoke of the many gallant deeds performed by the brave boys in blue on the battlefields of Shiloh, Chancellorsville, Gettysburg and other prominent engagements of the war, the eyes of many of the old veterans were noticeably bedimmed with tears, and his address made a deep impression on his auditors."

MRS. SWANEY IS DEAD.

The Captain of the Dispatch Called Home on a Sad Mission.

Capt. Edward Swaney, of the Dispatch, returned from Cumberland this morning after a sad visit at that place. Early in the week his mother was taken ill with typhoid pneumonia and rapidly grew worse. Thursday evening she passed away, death coming unexpectedly. Mrs. Swaney had long been a resident of Cumberland, and has many relatives living in this section. The funeral will take place tomorrow.

A DIVORCE

Is Wanted by Mrs. Wortman From Her Husband.

LISBON, Dec. 12.—[Special]—It has been learned that the name of the unfortunate Italian who was brought here from Columbiana, yesterday is Antonio Molacco, and his home is in Allegheny or Leontonia. He is aged and hopelessly insane, and it has not yet been determined what will be done with him, but in all probability the Allegheny authorities will be notified.

Lizzie Wortman, of Liverpool, sues for divorce from Henry Wortman, and Judge Smith has granted her an injunction which will restrain him from taking their child. They were married here two years ago, and since that time he has abused and neglected her, she says.

Hosts of witnesses were in probate court to furnish the evidence to sustain a charge of adultery for which Mrs. Lyde Grace, of this place, was on trial. It was claimed that she had been living unlawfully with Edward Snyder, and both were called to account. Lack of evidence caused the case to be dismissed, and that against Snyder to be nolle.

CONSUMPTION KILLED HIM.

William Mitcheson Has Gone to the Last Long Home.

William Mitcheson died last evening at his home on Sixth street after a lingering illness from consumption. Deceased was aged 22 years, and had been in poor health for over a year, but not until a few months ago was he compelled to take to the bed from which he never arose. The young man was beloved by all who knew him, and had a bright, sunny disposition that endeared him to everybody. The funeral will probably take place Monday afternoon, and interment will be made at River-view.

A BIG DIFFERENCE

Between the Assets and Liabilities of A. J. Boyce.

The appraisers who have been valuing the property of A. J. Boyce finished their work today, and with the possible exception of a few details yet to be looked after, are ready to report. A very close estimate puts the assets at $40,000 and the liabilities at $24,000. This may vary a few dollars, but the difference will not be much. The foundry and enameling works are still in operation.

SECRETARY PIERCE COMING.

He Will Be Here to Talk About the New Secretary.

The trustees of the Young Men's Christian association failed to meet last evening, as several members were unavoidably absent. President Bulger is in receipt of a letter from State Secretary Pierce, in which he states that he will arrive in the city Monday morning, and will remain until the afternoon train for the purpose of conferring with the trustees in regard to a new secretary.

KNOCKED DOWN.

One Boy Regrets Playing With Electricity.

A number of boys assembled on the Brunt lot at Washington and Second streets last evening, and indulged in a form of amusement not common even among the small boys of East Liverpool. A wire was attached to a light wire, and the lads enjoyed the shocks. Their play was continued until John Kilmer received a shock which knocked him down, and rendered him insensible.

TYPHOID FEVER.

Two Cases Were Reported Today to Doctor Ogden.

Two new cases of typhoid fever were reported to the health officer this morning. The afflicted parties are at the homes of Edward C. Woolcroft, Minerva street, and Charles Dawson, Ogden street. There are now several cases of the disease in the city, and it behooves everybody to clean up their premises and keep them clean.

MORE PRESENTS.

In addition to cushions the Woman's Relief Corps will send the veterans of the Sadusky home a box of jellies and reading matter. Next week they will send to the old ladies of the Madison home a box of Christmas presents. The box will contain aprons, handkerchiefs and many other articles that will make them glad.

THE MACHINE BROKE

And the Well on the Henry Farm Did Not Come In.

The Williams well on the Henry farm failed to come in yesterday as expected, owing to the drilling machine breaking down. It was necessary to send to the factory for the manufacturer of the machine, who arrived on the scene today, and returned with several broken parts. It will be several days before work can again be started.

Will Lose an Eye.

Ford Coleman, who was struck in the eye by a nail a few days ago, will probably lose the optic, as the physicians who have examined him are of the opinion it will have to come out.

A Large Attendance.

There was a large attendance of teachers at the last meeting of the year held in Central building yesterday. A number of interesting papers were read.

DEMONS IN POSSESSION

A Sad Sight Witnessed Last Night.

FOUGHT LIKE AN ANGRY TIGER

Samuel Barlow, Said to Be a Sober, Reliable and Trustworthy Young Citizen, and a Good Workman, the Victim of an Hysterical Fit—Fought Like an Incarnate Fury.

Great commotion was caused at the Grand last night by the conduct of Samuel Barlow, a dipper employed at the Dresden pottery. The young man commenced laughing at some especially funny feature, and finally the laughter became hysterical, causing so much annoyance and attracting so much attention as to compel Chief Johnson and Officer Powell to eject him from the place, Barlow crying out: "I paid a quarter to get in here, and you've no right to put me out." He was taken into Reed's drug store, where morphia was administered, but apparently without effect, the young man finally becoming extremely violent, requiring the services of half a dozen strong men to restrain him from inflicting damage to person or property, while white froth gathered about his mouth, his face assumed an appearance actually demonic, and he shrieked forth the vilest and most profane language which one could possibly conceive of—language which would almost cause even a hardened sinner's hair to stand on end with horror: "Oh my, mammy; whipporwill, whipporwill; you blackeyed devils; oh, hell; whipporwill, whipporwill; oh my mammy; don't you dare choke me, you dirty devils." And then came awful use of the Savior's name, and dire threats, in language unfit for publication in this paper, against the men who were holding him. Making a mighty struggle, he hurled his captors back momentarily, and then, with the froth flying from his mouth, expectorated squarely in their faces, and a bystander sang out: "Down him, men; put him on the floor; you can't manage him in that manner." Down he went, beneath the lusty hands of Chief Johnson, Officers Whan, Terrence and Powell, backed by three friends of the demon-possessed man. Barlow, prone upon the floor, continued to spit, like a maddened cat, in the faces of the men, until one of the number was compelled to seize him by the throat and force his head backward upon the floor. At this moment George Mulligan, a friend of Barlow, interfered, using very bad language, cursing the officers and crying out: "Don't you dare choke him, he's got a fit." His interference was entirely uncalled for, as the officers and their helpers were using poor Barlow just as leniently as they dare, under the circumstances, and Officer Whan finally tackled Mulligan, who fought back, until Officer Terrence grappled Mr. M. and hustled him out of the front door, where an immense crowd was gathered, gazing upon the struggle inside, from every point of vantage. Dr. W. R. Clark was then forced to use sponge and chloroform, and the struggling victim finally ceased his struggles and cursing, the physician desisting from the use of the anaesthetic just as soon as he dare. Barlow was then assisted to his feet, spoke as if rational for a few seconds, asked for tobacco, which was given him, and almost instantly a second awful spell seized him, the officers were once more compelled to down him, and chloroform was again called into requisition, and this time more effectively, Barlow being so far subdued as to make it safe to place him in the patrol wagon and take him to his home on Grant street. Later on, near midnight, the poor fellow was seized with another attack at his residence, and the services of a physician and policeman were found necessary.

George Blakely, warehouseman at McNicol's pottery, states that he has been an intimate friend and acquaintance of Barlow for the last seven years, that the latter does not drink intoxicants and that he is a good workman and a good citizen, that he has been subject to fits or falling spells at intervals, but that last night was the first occasion when his friend became violent or dangerous. Blakely states that Barlow is an inveterate tobacco chewer, fairly eating the stuff. Barlow stated to Druggist Will Reed, on a former occasion, that when he left tobacco alone, he was not so apt to be attacked by the spells.

The experience of last night was an awful one, and a gentleman present said: "I have read of men being possessed of demons and devils in the days of old, and I have now had a practical demonstration that such features were and are facts. Here is a fine young man and a good citizen, cursing, raving, swearing and suffering—verily possessed by demons. It is simply awful."

Wellsville to Entertain the Steubenville Presbytery.

PROGRAM FOR THE TWO DAYS

The Steubenville presbytery of the Presbyterian church will meet in Wellsville next Monday evening, and continue in session until Tuesday evening. The sessions will open Monday evening at 7 o'clock in the Second church, and after the roll call the officers will be elected. The report of the committee of arrangements will be followed by a sermon by Rev. J. P. Leyenberger. Communion and the appointment of committees will end the meeting. A PANIC ON THE BEDFORD.

The Boat Struck a Cable at the Rochester Bridge.

There was a panic on the Bedford soon after the boat left the Rochester wharf Thursday night. A tow of coal was tied to a pier of the bridge, and the heavy wire cable was stretched across the channel. Not being able to see it the pilot had ordered the boat ahead, and it was moving at a good speed when it struck the cable. The shock was terrific, and the boat vibrated in every timber. The staging was lifted up bodily, and separating from the boat, sank. A six inch stand pipe was broken off, and immediately there was great excitement. Women were running about and screaming the boat was sinking. One officer was asleep, and hearing the commotion, ran out of his cabin, presenting a ridiculous appearance as he endeavored to put on his trousers. T. R. Bradshaw was a passenger, and at the first shock ran to get his overcoat, but so great was the commotion he only got through the crowd with difficulty. The boat put back to the wharf, and an examination showed it would stand the trip to Pittsburg. Captain Green will hold the owners of the tow responsible for the damage.

ANOTHER RECITAL.

Professor Harper and His Class Will Sing Foster's Music.

Professor Harper has arranged for another free recital, but this time it will be held in the opera house in order that all who desire to attend may be given an opportunity to hear the excellent music. The music will be the best work of the famous Foster, and those who have long loved the beautiful melodies will appreciate them even more when rendered by the excellent vocalists the professor has gathered about him. A number of seats will be reserved at 10 cents each, but 500 will be free. The recital takes place next Thursday evening.

ALL WANT WALKS.

Commissioner Finley Has Very Many Applicants.

Since council has shown some disposition to hear with forbearance the requests of property owners for board walks, Commissioner Finley has done little but answer requests for walks. They come from all directions, and call for walks from a block to a quarter of a mile in length, the property owners evidently believing the necessity of the improvement for which they ask is a secondary matter.

Lizzie Wortman, of Liverpool, sues for divorce from Henry Wortman, and Judge Smith has granted her an injunction which will restrain him from taking their child. They were married here two years ago, and since that time he has abused and neglected her, she says.

Hosts of witnesses were in probate court to furnish the evidence to sustain a charge of adultery for which Mrs. Lyde Grace, of this place, was on trial. It was claimed that she had been living unlawfully with Edward Snyder, and both were called to account. Lack of evidence caused the case to be dismissed, and that against Snyder to be nolle.

CONSUMPTION KILLED HIM.

William Mitcheson Has Gone to the Last Long Home.

William Mitcheson died last evening at his home on Sixth street after a lingering illness from consumption. Deceased was aged 22 years, and had been in poor health for over a year, but not until a few months ago was he compelled to take to the bed from which he never arose. The young man was beloved by all who knew him, and had a bright, sunny disposition that endeared him to everybody. The funeral will probably take place Monday afternoon, and interment will be made at River-view.

A BIG DIFFERENCE

Between the Assets and Liabilities of A. J. Boyce.

The appraisers who have been valuing the property of A. J. Boyce finished their work today, and with the possible exception of a few details yet to be looked after, are ready to report. A very close estimate puts the assets at $40,000 and the liabilities at $24,000. This may vary a few dollars, but the difference will not be much. The foundry and enameling works are still in operation.

SECRETARY PIERCE COMING.

He Will Be Here to Talk About the New Secretary.

The trustees of the Young Men's Christian association failed to meet last evening, as several members were unavoidably absent. President Bulger is in receipt of a letter from State Secretary Pierce, in which he states that he will arrive in the city Monday morning, and will remain until the afternoon train for the purpose of conferring with the trustees in regard to a new secretary.

KNOCKED DOWN.

One Boy Regrets Playing With Electricity.

A number of boys assembled on the Brunt lot at Washington and Second streets last evening, and indulged in a form of amusement not common even among the small boys of East Liverpool. A wire was attached to a light wire, and the lads enjoyed the shocks. Their play was continued until John Kilmer received a shock which knocked him down, and rendered him insensible.

TYPHOID FEVER.

Two Cases Were Reported Today to Doctor Ogden.

Two new cases of typhoid fever were reported to the health officer this morning. The afflicted parties are at the homes of Edward C. Woolscroft, Minerva street, and Charles Dawson, Ogden street. There are now several cases of the disease in the city, and it behooves everybody to clean up their premises and keep them clean.

MORE PRESENTS.

In addition to cushions the Woman's Relief Corps will send the veterans of the Sadusky home a box of jellies and reading matter. Next week they will send to the old ladies of the Madison home a box of Christmas presents. The box will contain aprons, handkerchiefs and many other articles that will make them glad.

THE MACHINE BROKE

And the Well on the Henry Farm Did Not Come In.

The Williams well on the Henry farm failed to come in yesterday as expected, owing to the drilling machine breaking down. It was necessary to send to the factory for the manufacturer of the machine, who arrived on the scene today, and returned with several broken parts. It will be several days before work can again be started.

Will Lose an Eye.

Ford Coleman, who was struck in the eye by a nail a few days ago, will probably lose the optic, as the physicians who have examined him are of the opinion it will have to come out.

A Large Attendance.

There was a large attendance of teachers at the last meeting of the year held in Central building yesterday. A number of interesting papers were read.

DEMONS IN POSSESSION

A Sad Sight Witnessed Last Night.

FOUGHT LIKE AN ANGRY TIGER

Samuel Barlow, Said to Be a Sober, Reliable and Trustworthy Young Citizen, and a Good Workman, the Victim of an Hysterical Fit—Fought Like an Incarnate Fury.

Great commotion was caused at the Grand last night by the conduct of Samuel Barlow, a dipper employed at the Dresden pottery. The young man commenced laughing at some especially funny feature, and finally the laughter became hysterical, causing so much annoyance and attracting so much attention as to compel Chief Johnson and Officer Powell to eject him from the place, Barlow crying out: "I paid a quarter to get in here, and you've no right to put me out." He was taken into Reed's drug store, where morphia was administered, but apparently without effect, the young man finally becoming extremely violent, requiring the services of half a dozen strong men to restrain him from inflicting damage to person or property, while white froth gathered about his mouth, his face assumed an appearance actually demonic, and he shrieked forth the vilest and most profane language which one could possibly conceive of—language which would almost cause even a hardened sinner's hair to stand on end with horror: "Oh my, mammy; whipporwill, whipporwill; you blackeyed devils; oh, hell; whipporwill, whipporwill; oh my mammy; don't you dare choke me, you dirty devils." And then came awful use of the Savior's name, and dire threats, in language unfit for publication in this paper, against the men who were holding him. Making a mighty struggle, he hurled his captors back momentarily, and then, with the froth flying from his mouth, expectorated squarely in their faces, and a bystander sang out: "Down him, men; put him on the floor; you can't manage him in that manner." Down he went, beneath the lusty hands of Chief Johnson, Officers Whan, Terrence and Powell, backed by three friends of the demon-possessed man. Barlow, prone upon the floor, continued to spit, like a maddened cat, in the faces of the men, until one of the number was compelled to seize him by the throat and force his head backward upon the floor. At this moment George Mulligan, a friend of Barlow, interfered, using very bad language, cursing the officers and crying out: "Don't you dare choke him, he's got a fit." His interference was entirely uncalled for, as the officers and their helpers were using poor Barlow just as leniently as they dare, under the circumstances, and Officer Whan finally tackled Mulligan, who fought back, until Officer Terrence grappled Mr. M. and flustered him out of the front door, where an immense crowd was gathered, gazing upon the struggle inside, from every point of vantage. Dr. W. R. Clark was then forced to use sponge and chloroform, and the struggling victim finally ceased his struggles and cursing, the physician desisting from the use of the anaesthetic just as soon as he dare. Barlow was then assisted to his feet, spoke as if rational for a few seconds, asked for tobacco, which was given him, and almost instantly a second awful spell seized him, the officers were once more compelled to down him, and chloroform was again called into requisition, and this time more effectually, Barlow being so far subdued as to make it safe to place him in the patrol wagon and take him to his home on Grant street. Later on, near midnight, the poor fellow was seized with another attack at his residence, and the services of a physician and policeman were found necessary.

George Blakely, warehouseman at McNicol's pottery, states that he has been an intimate friend and acquaintance of Barlow for the last seven years, that the latter does not drink intoxicants and that he is a good workman and a good citizen, that he has been subject to fits or falling spells at intervals, but that last night was the first occasion when his friend became violent or dangerous. Blakely states that Barlow is an inveterate tobacco chewer, fairly eating the stuff. Barlow stated to Druggist Will Reed, on a former occasion, that when he left tobacco alone, he was not so apt to be attacked by the spells.

The experience of last night was an awful one, and a gentleman present said: "I have read of men being possessed of demons and devils in the days of old, and I have now had a practical demonstration that such features were and are facts. Here is a fine young man and a good citizen, cursing, raving, swearing and suffering—very possessed by demons. It is simply awful."

Barlow, who was struck in the eye by a nail a few days ago, will probably lose the optic, as the physicians who have examined him are of the opinion it will have to come out.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., SATURDAY, DEC. 12

ALL the news all the time is what all readers of the NEWS REVIEW always get.

MR. BRYAN calls his book "The First Battle." Had he substituted last for first he might have come nearer to the mark.

If the Powers hasten to carry out their program, more than one European court will have Turkey for its Christmas dinner.

THE advantage of having a senator from your own county—Beaver Falls will soon have a public building, East Liverpool will not.

CUBA will be free, and thousands of men who are today outlaws in the sight of cruel Spanish law will live to see the time when Cuban will be synonymous with freedom.

AND the cabinet making goes on. Every day or two news is dull in Canton, and a new cabinet is at once formed. What wonders such energy could accomplish in a worthy cause.

It is sincerely hoped the threatened strike in the coal mines will be averted. The miners of this county and every other coal county of this section have suffered enough these past few years to deserve some prosperity.

REALIZING that free silver has gone the way of all crazes, Senator Walcott, of Colorado, has introduced a resolution for another international monetary conference. The senator should have thought of that before election.

COMPLETE returns from every state in the Union have been compiled, and show that McKinley received 7,122,794 and Bryan 6,498,857, the Bryan vote including 152,345 cast for Watson electors. Pretty much of a landslide, too.

THE plundering combinations, living and thriving under the very eye of the government, should be brought to with a sharp twist. A little legislation looking to the early extermination of trusts would do this country a vast deal of good.

THE county Democracy must fight. If it can't engage the enemy it goes nearer home and fights in the family. The Lisbon Patriot, with a great flourish of trumpets, reads C. N. Schmich, of Leetonia, out of the party, and the Reporter at once brimstones the Patriot. How pleasant it must be to be a Democratic leader.

AND now they say the Democrats are preparing to run Paul Sorg for governor and John R. McClain for senator. That is a monied combination to which the millions of Mr. Erice cannot be compared. Why even Columbiana would come in for a share of the spoil if these illustrious worthies once decided to ask for public office.

NO NEED FOR ALARM.

Developments of the past few days have shown that those alarmists, who are attempting to prove the presence of a strong movement favoring the passage of the Dingley bill to the exclusion of a Republican tariff, have no ground on which to stand. It has seemed since the day following election that one of the first official acts of Major McKinley would be the calling of a special session to revive the tariff and place it on a Republican basis. Nothing has transpired to show that this is not the plan of the president-elect. On the other hand, standing with the argument, is the repeated assertion of congressmen and senators that the duties on imports should not only provide sufficient revenue to meet the expenses of the government, but must afford ample protection against the pauper wages of Europe. Now comes the announcement that work on a tariff measure is to be commenced at once, in order that it be ready for action when the special session convenes. There certainly seems no excuse for all this hubbub about the Dingley bill, and if traced to its source it would probably be found emanating from those men who are just now most interested for political reasons in frightening the people into the belief that the election of McKinley was not the blessing promised.

WEYLER HAS NERVE.

Accepts Plaudits as If He Had Accomplished Something.

HE RETURNS TO HAVANA AGAIN.

"I Have Only Directed; the Army Has Done All," He Replied to the Congratulations of the People—Some Cubans Believe Maceo Dead.

HAVANA, Dec. 12.—Captain General Weyler has arrived once more in this city on horseback accompanied by Lieutenant Colonel Escribana and others of his staff and by a cavalry escort.

The streets of Havana were thronged with people, and the houses of the town had been gaily decorated with bunting in anticipation of the captain general's return. The Plaza Armes, in front of the captain general's palace, was packed with a vast concourse of people.

The Marquis Ahumada, vice governor general, accompanied by the colonel of his staff, met Captain General Weyler at the entrance of the palace.

Immediately after entering the palace Captain General Weyler appeared on the balcony, bowing his acknowledgments to the vivas which the multitude in the square were shouting for Spain, Spanish Cuba, the king, the queen, the army, the navy and the volunteers.

Captain General Weyler made a brief address, in the course of which he said: "I have only directed; the army has done all."

Various delegations, both civil and military, were received later by General Weyler at the palace, and they offered their congratulations upon the outcome of his operations in Pinar del Rio.

Marquis Ahumada also offered his congratulations upon the death of Maceo. Captain General Weyler responded that the credit for the combination which had resulted in the fall of the Cuban chief was all due to the Marquis Ahumada, but the latter said he had only seconded his chief's plans.

Key West, Dec. 12.—Maceo's death is still discredited by the greater number of prominent Cubans here. Yet there are a number who fear it is true. All await the arrival of the steamship from Havana today, however, before concluding it to be true. The report that Dr. Zertucha, who was Maceo's physician, had seen Maceo's body exhumed is untrue. It is learned from a reliable source that Zertucha never was Maceo's physician.

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—Senator Tomas Estrada Palma of the Cuban junta is still confident of the reliability of his Havana correspondent, who denies that Antonio Maceo is dead.

Others connected with the junta are more disposed to credit the accumulating evidences of Maceo's death.

MADRID, Dec. 12.—The queen will receive the wife of Major Cirujeda, who commanded the troops which killed Maceo. Major Cirujeda will be promoted to be a colonel. Many towns in Spain are offering swords in his honor.

HAWAII KIND TO LIL.

Consuls Ordered to Show Her Honor. Comment in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—While no official information has been received as to the purpose of ex-Queen Liliuokalani's visit to this country, her coming at this time occasions much comment in official quarters. She will be met here, it is understood, by Princess Kaiulani, who has been sojourning in Italy and will come here for this meeting.

Minister Hatch of Hawaii is now in New York and Mr. Cooper, the Hawaiian minister of foreign affairs, is enroute to San Francisco to take the steamer for Hawaii on the 16th inst. This will bring him into close proximity to the ex-queen at San Francisco.

In the event of the ex-queen and princess coming to Washington their visit could not be regarded by the authorities here as official, for the United States has formally recognized the Republic of Hawaii and its diplomatic representatives receive full official credit here.

It is understood that the queen's resources have been such of late that the addition of a pension, as one of the features of the proposed annexation treaty, might not be acceptable.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 12.—Ex-Queen Liliuokalani is extremely reticent. To all questions as to her intentions she replies: "I have not yet matured my plans." She would not even say why she had left Honolulu. The Hawaiian consul, however, has received advice from his government stating that on the morning of her departure Liliuokalani called on President Dole and informed him that she was going to Boston to see relatives of her husband, the late John Dominis. Representatives of Hawaii in this country have been instructed to show the ex-queen every courtesy while she is in the United States.

MUST COME BACK AS PRIVATES.

Daniel Campau Not Conciliatory Toward the Gold Democrats.

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—Daniel J. Campau of Detroit, chairman of the Democratic national executive committee, is not very conciliatory to the leaders of the gold movement. He said: "The leaders of these gold Democrats cannot come back to the Democratic party, except as privates in the ranks. They bolted and went against their party at a critical time and they cannot expect to return as leaders."

OPPOSED TO GOMPERS.

Cleveland Delegates Will Try to Defeat His Re-Election.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 12.—The Cleveland delegates to the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor, which will meet in Cincinnati next week, will use their influence toward the defeat for re-election of the president, Samuel Gompers. The bicycle workers, electrical workers, shipbuilders' helpers and bricklayers have all so instructed their delegates. The cause given is that Mr. Gompers has so long been at the head of the federation that he is too conservative, whereas occasions often arise calling for aggressive action.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 12.—The auditing committee of the American Federation of Labor has arrived and will be ready to report when the convention meets Monday.

GONE, GONE IS COXEY.

The General's Parting Words as He Bolted the Populists.

MASSILLON, O., Dec. 12.—"General" J. S. Coxey issues an open letter to Senator Marion Butler, denouncing "the disgraced People's party," sold out to "an issue so insignificant as silver." "I decline," he says, "to help chase rainbows of election frauds in Ohio, but hereby announce my resignation as a member of the national committee." He concludes: "I once left the Democratic party and now find, in order to be out of it for sure, I must leave the once grand, but now disgraced, People's party. This is done in deep sorrow and with the hope to join a party soon to which the hope of the republic must look for succor from financial and industrial ills."

New State Grange Officers.

BELLEFONTAINE, O., Dec. 12.—The following officers were elected by the Ohio State Grange: Master, S. H. Ellis, Warren county; overseer, R. R. Rathburn, Clark county; steward, C. W. Hale, Huron county; lecturer, C. M. Freeman, Miami county; assistant steward, S. E. Storde, Morgan county; chaplain, M. L. Lizzie Crouse, Ross county; treasurer, W. W. Miller, Columbus; secretary, F. A. Derthick, Portage county, and T. R. Smith, Delaware.

Trouble Over Militia Money.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 12.—On Monday Governor Bushnell will be officially requested by the Fifth regiment, Ohio national guard of this city, to order a military court to inquire into the financial proceedings of all the national guard organizations in Cleveland, including cavalry and artillery, and to ascertain what was done with $5,500 turned over to Adjutant General Axline by the Cleveland centennial commission for use at the military encampment in this city last summer.

To Take Street Railway Bonds.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 12.—A syndicate has been formed here and agreed to take up $200,000 second mortgage bonds of the Cincinnati, Newport and Covington Street Railway company, subject to ratification by the stockholders, most of whom are of Cleveland, Pittsburg and Cincinnati. The company has 60 miles of track. The system is capitalized at $4,000,000, of which three-fourths is paid up and it has $3,000,000 bonded debt.

Would Rather Hang.

ASHLAND, O., Dec. 12.—The grand jury indicted Elias Kiester, charging him with the first-degree murder of Horace Stearns, at Perryville, Nov. 29. Kiester says: "I am innocent, but would rather be hanged than return to Perryville." His trial will begin Jan. 5.

Brakeman's Murderer Caught.

DELAWARE, O., Dec. 12.—A tramp who exactly answers the description of the murderer of the Erie brakeman, Nelson Snagel of Huntington, Ind., near Galion, has been arrested in Ashley, this county. He was slipped away from Galion to prevent lynching.

The B. & O. Moving Wheat.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 12.—General Manager William Greene of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad states that the road is receiving and forwarding all grain that is being offered. He said there is no longer any congestion at Baltimore or any other points along the line.

Elopers Married in Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 12.—John G. Lowry of Pittsburg and Miss Carrie C. Calvert of Brownsville, Pa., have eloped to Cleveland and were married by a justice of the peace. Miss Calvert's parents opposed the match.

An Alleged Offender.

TROY, O., Dec. 12.—Philip Sheets, Jr., of Botkins, charged with selling liquors without payment of the revenue tax, was admitted to $500 bail to appear before the United States circuit court at Cincinnati.

Endorsed Brigham For the Cabinet.

BELLEFONTAINE, O., Dec. 12.—The Ohio State Grange has adopted a resolution recommending to President-elect McKinley the Hon. J. H. Brigham of Ohio for appointment as secretary of agriculture.

Wants to Be a Consul.

DELAWARE, O., Dec. 12.—Prof. Richard Parsons, of the Ohio Wesleyan university, wants the consulship to Athens.

FOREIGN MISSION WORK.

Figures Showing the Contributions Made by the Protestants.

BOSTON, Dec. 12.—A summary of Protestant foreign missionary work throughout the world has been prepared by the Rev. E. E. Strond, D. D., editorial secretary of the American board. The totals, compared with last year, show an increase in contributions of about $1,100,000. In the United States there was a decrease of about $70,000. In the event of the ex-queen and princess coming to Washington their visit could not be regarded by the authorities here as official, for the United States has formally recognized the Republic of Hawaii and its diplomatic representatives receive full official credit here.

It is understood that the queen's resources have been such of late that the addition of a pension, as one of the features of the proposed annexation treaty, might not be acceptable.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 12.—Ex-Queen Liliuokalani is extremely reticent. To all questions as to her intentions she replies: "I have not yet matured my plans." She would not even say why she had left Honolulu. The Hawaiian consul, however, has received advice from his government stating that on the morning of her departure Liliuokalani called on President Dole and informed him that she was going to Boston to see relatives of her husband, the late John Dominis. Representatives of Hawaii in this country have been instructed to show the ex-queen every courtesy while she is in the United States.

He concludes: "I once left the Democratic party and now find, in order to be out of it for sure, I must leave the once grand, but now disgraced, People's party. This is done in deep sorrow and with the hope to join a party soon to which the hope of the republic must look for succor from financial and industrial ills."

NOT VERY CHEAP LIGHT
Martin's Ferry Pays a Good Price For Illumination.

THE CITY OWNS ITS OWN PLANT
A Suit Brought Out Some Facts Which Should Make the Advocates of Municipal Ownership Think Twice Before Voting That Way.

There was an action tried at St. Clairsville on December 2d and 3d, of Martin's Ferry against the Wheeling Bridge and Terminal company, which would furnish valuable material for the advocates of municipal ownership.

The statutes authorize a city to locate lights on a railroad where the railroad does not properly light its track, and charge to the railroad the actual cost of furnishing the light. This was done by Martin's Ferry, and they brought suit for the value of lights since the plant was placed in operation. The evidence showed clearly that municipal ownership in Martin's Ferry, with coal at 2 cents a bushel in the boiler room, costs $66 per light per year, and a verdict was rendered in this amount. This on a monthly schedule, not including interest on investment, taxes, insurance other than boiler insurance, water, nor any fund for accident liabilities. The plant cost about $30,000. Adding these items to the $66 and calculating the difference between the monthly schedule and all night lights, places the actual cost of lights to that city at not less than $100. It will be a nice mathematical calculation for the advocates of municipal ownership to figure out a profit to East Liverpool on this basis, when we are offered our light at $75 per year, by allowing the usual price for the 50 incandescent lights received free, which represents six arc lights in cost and power.

A report of the trial in the hands of the court stenographer will convince any doubting ones that the above information is correct.

He only attained his majority a few days ago.

A POOL TABLE
Brought Out a Sadly Mixed State of Affairs.

He sold it to Thomas Patterson, and Durbin asked the law to aid him in recovering it. After eight witnesses had told their stories, the squire decided it belonged to Patterson.

THE STORY OF A CHILD
Its Mother Left It at a Second Street House.

PUT IT IN THE CENTER OF A ROOM
And Then Went on Her Way Believing It Would Be Returned to Her In a Few Hours—It Was Cared For by Strangers. Today She Took It Home.

Soon after 6 o'clock last evening the door of Mrs. Jackson's boarding house on Second street was opened, and Mrs. Mary Barcus, of West End, put a babe, not more than two months old, in the middle of the room. The woman then left. The child was kept until this morning when the poor authorities were notified, and Trustees Albright and Beardmore went to the house. Upon hearing the story Mr. Albright went to West End, and talked with Mrs. Barcus. The woman said she had taken the child to Al Barcus, who boards at the Jackson house, in the hope that he would care for it. He had been promising, she said, to support it, but had done nothing. She did not expect him to keep it, but thought he would return it in a few hours. The trust he had little trouble in persuading the woman to return with him, and she again took possession of the babe. Barcus denied all knowledge of the child, and because he knows nothing of it was the reason it was not returned.

AN INJUNCTION.
The Railroad Company Objects to a Sewer.

LISBON, Dec. 12.—[Special.]—The Cleveland and Pittsburgh railway company has filed suit in court against the city of East Liverpool and Shingleton & Cunningham in which an injunction has been issued in probate court in the absence of Judge Smith. The railroad owns five lots in East Liverpool known as 488-89-90-92-93 which, it claims, the defendants have wrongfully entered and proceeded to dig up for the purpose of putting in a sewer, and if not restrained by the court will divert from its natural course a stream of water known as Tanyard run.

The injunction issued, it is asked, may be made perpetual on final hearing.

Sheriff Gill came to the city this morning, and served the injunction on Mayor Gilbert. It was brought about by the sewer being built in West End.

DOCTORS are often handicapped by the mere fact that when treating the diseases of women, they suggest and insist on "examinations" and "local treatment." A great many of them do not know that this is absolutely unnecessary. Many a woman has been thrown into a dangerous state of nervous excitement by the mere suggestion of such treatment. "Many women lie to the doctor. They sound hard, but it is undoubtedly true. They know that if they admit certain symptoms that the doctor will inevitably insist on an "examination." They do not give him all the facts in the case, and so he works in the dark. Quite often the doctor is too busy and too hurried to make the necessary effort to obtain the facts. He frequently treats symptoms for the real cause and the real sickness is deeper and more dangerous. A derangement of the distinctly feminine organs will derange the whole body. The woman herself may not know exactly what is the matter with her, but whenever she is sick, there are two things she should look out for first. One is what is called "female weakness," the other is constipation, for these two things often go together. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is designed for the cure of diseases and disorders of women, and it does cure them. It has been performing its healing mission for 30 years, and tens of thousands of women have been made happy by it. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are for constipation and contingent ills. Druggists sell them, but sometimes in well meaning ignorance, they will try to sell you something else. There is nothing "just as good" as "just as good." The druggist who tells you there is, is either mistaken or dishonest.

If you care to know more about your own body, send 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only, and you will receive absolutely free a copy of Dr. Pierce's 1,008 page book, "Common Sense Medical Advice." Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

LOCAL EVIDENCE.
A Report from the D. E. McNicholl Pottery.

If this report were published in East Liverpool, about a resident of Liverpool, England, we would expect our readers to harbor some suspicion about it, at least we are safe in saying that any public utterance made in East Liverpool, Ohio, by a resident of Liverpool, England, would not be half so interesting as a sentence or two from Mr. H. Thompson, of 306 Fourth street, presser at the D. E. McNicholl Pottery and a resident of East Liverpool for the past forty-five years. Mr. Thompson, in 61, joined Co. L of 62nd Penn. Infantry at Pitts Co. and served his country well for three years, enduring all the hardships and trials of camp life. When such a man as he comes out flat footed and endorses the claims of an article in which he has no interest there must be something more than ordinary merit behind it. It requires no reasoning or argument to prove this. The facts are plain and to the point. He says: "During my campaign experience between the years of 61 and 64 I contracted a weakness of the kidneys which has bothered me more or less ever since, and recently very severely. I had a constant aching pain across the small of my back and was subject to attacks of muscular rheumatism, especially in damp or changeable weather. I have frequently been so bad that I could scarcely get up when down, and in fact could hardly get around at all. I have tried many remedies in an endeavor to get rid of my trouble, but found nothing that seemed suited to my case until I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. and W. Pharmacy. They filled the bill exactly, giving me almost immediate relief and warding off the last attack. I am continuing their use firmly believing they will radically cure me. I do not hesitate to give Doan's Kidney Pills my earnest endorsement, believing they will be a great source of benefit to those troubled as I was."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents or mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.
